A Tribute to Keith Neville.

John J. Halligan pays the following tribute to Keith Neville, of this city, candidate for the democratic nomination for governor:

"Mr. Neville is first of all an American. He is a democrat because through that party he believes he can serve his country best as a citizen. His father represented the Sixth congressional district of Nebraska in congress and Mr. Neville because of his early environments and associations early became a deep student of public questions. He has never alienated himself with the divergent elements of the democratic party, but has always been an open and devoted champion of fundamental democratic principles and is worthy and entitled to the support of all democrats. He was born and raised in Nebraska. He never had a home in any other state; he knows Nebraska from the Missouri river to Wyoming and from South Dakota to Kansas. His interests are all in Nebraska and he will live and die here.

"Mr. Neville is a progressive democrat but not radical. He has no hobby and advocates no new untried theories in state or nation. Furthermore, he is a staunch advocate of law enforcement and the people may rest assured that while he is governor whatever laws are enacted either prohibiting or regulating the liquor traffic will be enforced to the strict letter."

Much Soggy Corn on Market.

Eastern grain markets, including Omaha, state that corn is almost a drug on the market, being quoted as low as twenty-two cents a bushel and little bought up at that price. The corn referred to is the grain which failed to mature last fall and is not of the best of quality. The return of warm weather has brought about some unexpected conditions with respect to the corn market. It has developed the fact that there is a lot of corn in the state that is so soft and completely soaked with water that it has almost no market value. While the weather was cold, very little of the corn appeared to be soft, but with the raising of the temperature and continuation of the warm weather, the corn that during the month of January seemed of the very best is now thawed and found to be soggy. Some grain men state that a portion of it is likely to rot before it can be dried out. The bulk of the corn in Kearney and Buffalo county is good, but there is more soft corn than was bargained for, according to reports received.—Kearney Hub.

Nominations Close Today.

Today is the last day in which men seeking political preferment can file their nomination papers. The list of candidates for nomination for county offices is heavy, as will be noticed by announcements in The Tribune, and there are quite a few who have not announced themselves in these columns. There is quite an army of good men, some may be better than others, and yet all possessed of the ability to fill the office which they respectively seek.

"Robin Hood" Coming

MARCH 13th.
"Robin Hood" and his merry men will hold forth at Keith theatre Monday, March 13th when the de Koven Opera company will present the all-star grand opera revival of de Koven's most famous work, "Robin Hood". The present elaborate presentation of this little masterpiece is the most ambitious effort yet made of a series of revivals that are calculated to foster a taste for a form of art that is in the languishing state.

Originally produced twenty-three years ago, "Robin Hood" has enjoyed a career of remarkable prosperity. It has been performed more than seven thousand times, and the melody of its score and the wit of its book will live to give delight to generations yet unborn. The present presentation will doubtless serve as a sharp reminder of the marked deterioration of the standard of light opera, and it may serve as a good purpose in eliminating the various exhibitions of nonsensical vulgarity that has taken the place and usurped the name and field of this genre of work.

"Robin Hood" has been given a worthy setting and the production is an artistic as well as an elaborate one. The market place of old Nottingham and the green shades of Sherwood Forest have been reproduced with fidelity and an attempt has been made to preserve the atmosphere of old England in the days when Richard I was King. The costumes have been designed with care and are of the period. To properly cast "Robin Hood" Reginald de Koven drew on the resources of the grand opera houses of this country and Europe. Ivy Scott, a famous prima donna, with a rare lyrical voice, was secured from the Metropolitan Opera, New York.

In the cast are Ralph Brainard, James Stevens, Phil Branson, Cora Tracy, Wm. Schuster, Thillie Salinger, Herbert Waterous, Carolyn Andrews, Sol Solomon and superb chorus.

Six or eight head of cattle delayed passenger train No. 7, twenty or thirty minutes last Tuesday evening. The cattle were on the track a short distance west of the Lexington depot and the train was compelled to stop two or three times before the animals would consent to get out of the way. Who the cattle belonged to was not learned. They evidently had escaped from some near-by pasture.—Lexington Pioneer.
